Complete assistance

The First Reception Program is aimed at applicants and beneficiaries of international protection, the status of stateless persons and temporary protection in Spain.

CEAR develops this program in Euskadi, Canarias, Sevilla, Málaga and Cádiz. This is a phase prior to the reception, where an initial evaluation and referral is made to asylum seekers with the aim of guaranteeing the coverage of their basic and urgent needs during the time elapsed between the formalization (or appointment request for can formalize) of your asylum application and the allocation by the MEYSS of a place within the host system.

Legal Advice

Voluntary return

Everybody who lives in Spain has the right and duty to be registered as such (“empadronado/a”), in other words, registered at the town council (“ayuntamiento”) of the town where they live, regardless of their nationality and whether or not they have the residence permit where necessary. The information provided is confidential.

Moreover, “empadronamiento” gives:

- The right to take part in social protection programmes related to education, employment, housing, etc.
- Proof to show you are staying in our country that will help when applying for regularization and work permits.
- The right to get medical assistance by applying for a healthcare card.
